DESCRIPTION

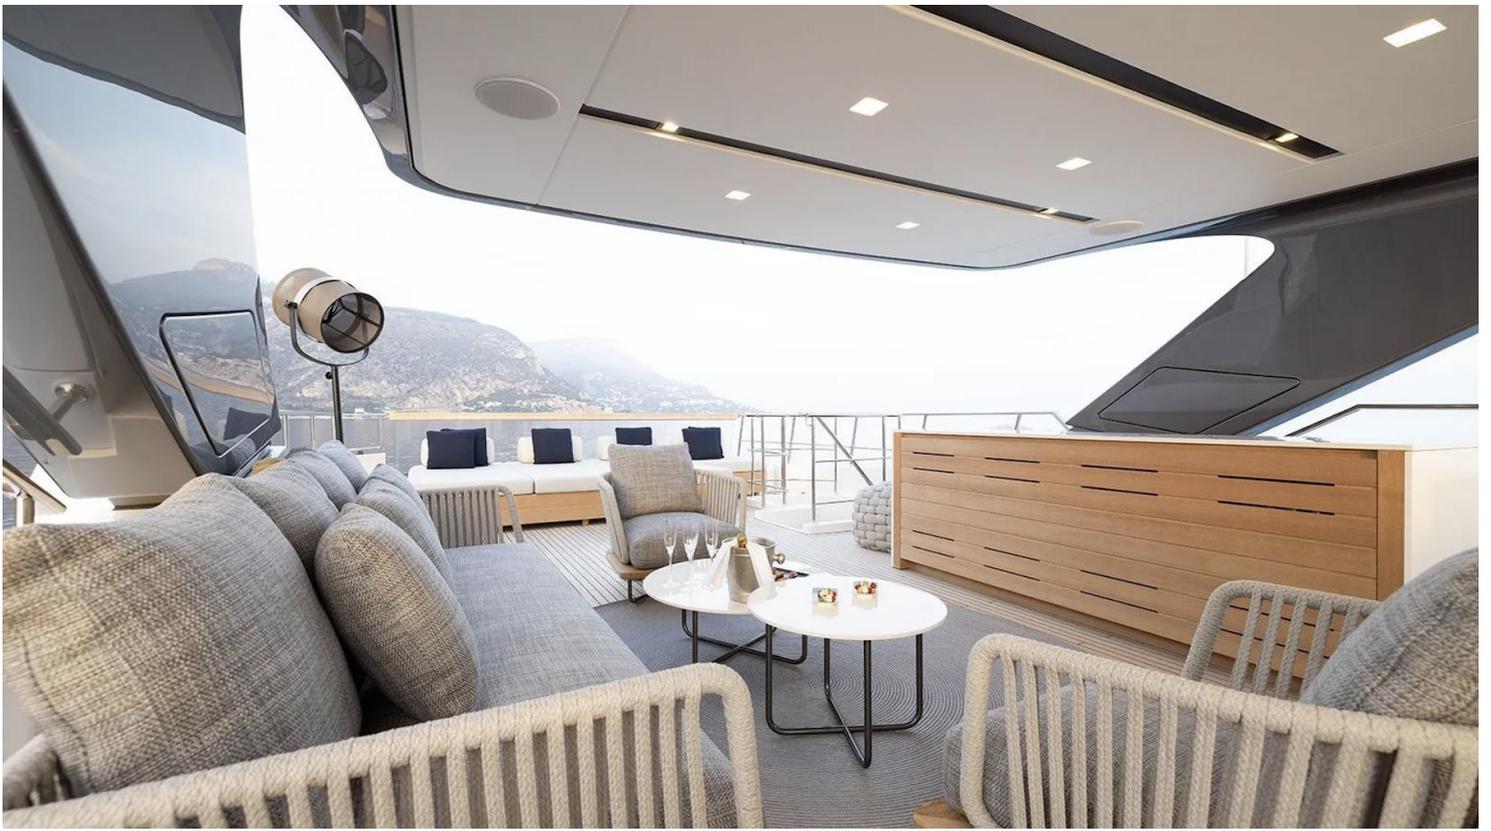

Introducing the Sanlorenzo SD126, a captivating semi-displacement tri-deck motoryacht meticulously crafted in Viareggio, Italy, and exclusively designed for the Americas market, complete with the prestigious "Americas Edition" specifications. This yacht is distinguished by its head-turning upgrades and features, such as a delightful terrace adjoining the main salon, gull wing doors off the master stateroom, a newly designed bow seating lounge, jacuzzi on flybridge, expanded hull-side windows, and a convenient hydraulic swim platform. With a fresh Hull paint job, maintains its luxurious and modern appeal.

Noteworthy for its Zero Speed stabilizers, the yacht ensures a smooth and comfortable cruising experience. Accommodating up to 11 guests, the on-deck master suite offers a touch of opulence with his and hers heads and a private office/study. On the lower deck, two VIP staterooms with ensuite heads and two twin staterooms, featuring Pullman berths and ensuite heads, provide a welcoming haven.

The upper deck boasts a Captain's suite for one, while additional accommodations for six crew members can be found on the lower deck. This remarkable motoryacht promises a blend of luxury and functionality, setting the stage for an unforgettable maritime adventure.
